

3/35A DICKSON LAMBTON NSW

2  1  1

Located in a quiet, quality complex of only three, this townhouse has the added attraction of being at the front, with its own drive and a wonderful Northerly aspect, making the private courtyard even more appealing and an ideal place to peruse the Sunday paper!

It comprises two large bedrooms, built-ins, a surprisingly spacious two way bathroom with bath and massive shower, second toilet downstairs for added convenience, a neat kitchen and both lounge and dining areas.

Storage is plentiful as in addition to the standard linen closet is storage under the stairs, in the garage and a very useful addition by way of an attic that will prove to be incredibly useful.

There is internal access from the garage which has an automatic door and as the driveway is your own, there is off
